4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Heavenly Father, As I enter another week of my Lenten journey, guide me to the path that leads to you. Fill my heart with gratitude, patience, strength, and peace as I strive to become the-best-version-of-myself, honestly admitting my shortcomings and sins.

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We enter the Fourth Week of Lent. The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally known as Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that translates to rejoice. In the Gospel reading, we hear these words that are perhaps one of the most cited Gospel verses "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life." We are invited to recognize the gift of the Cross which is meant to bring healing to our lives. The Cross that Christ offered for our sake saying that He loves us. This is why we always encourage you to make a good confession during the season of Lent. The Sacrament of Reconciliation allows us to get rid of all the junk in our lives and be renewed with our focus in Christ. We hope that this Lenten season continues to be a source of renewal that shapes us in the love of God.

I hope you have been able to attend the Lenten series that has been offered for our Family of Parishes. Our final two sessions will be at St John Vianney on Mondays, March 11 and 18 at 7pm. We hope to build up our Parishes by providing more faith opportunities, like our Lenten series, that not only give us an opportunity to be a place where faith is lived but also where our faith is shared. If there—is something that you would like to see that helps the growth of your faith life, kindly contact Jodi Meyer.

Once again, for the Season of Lent, both St John Vianney and Mary Our Queen Knights of Columbus will be hosting their Annual Fish Fries on Fridays. The proceeds support the charitable activities of the Knights of Columbus. Please join us if you are able to.

Things going on at St John Vianney:

What is left of the water damage repairs is the staining of the Church pews that were affected. We are hoping to complete this task in the next few weeks. There are also a few spots in the flat roof portion of the Church that are leaking. We are currently working to get them patched up.

We are currently upgrading the technology of our Parish with the installation of automatic locked doors for our Church building. This will allow us to give access to groups gathering to meet in Church with ease. We are also installing security cameras around the Church building as an added measure of security. We are also working on replacing our old servers and phone system.

Things going on at Mary Our Queen:

With the closing of the house next to our Early Childhood Education and Youth Center, we are now planning on working on our plans to have the house removed and to provide a space for the preschoolers to use.

We are currently scheduling the renovation of our existing playground. We will be removing the shredded mulch and replacing it with a new rubber surface. The renovation also includes the replacement of the dome in the playground and the slides in the existing playground structure.

God's Blessings,
Fr Marc

BRIDGE THE GAP

As you may be aware, tuition paid by our school families does not cover the full cost to educate each child. Closing this gap between tuition and the actual cost to educate a child at MOQ School is dependent on the generous donations and support of our parish and school community, alumni, and philanthropic partners.

Bridge the Gap will enable MOQ School to serve its mission to form students who are committed to faith and academic excellence now and well into the future. Your contribution to Bridge the Gap will directly impact MOQ students, enabling us to enhance academic programs, invest in technology and infrastructure, and provide financial aid to deserving families. ## CHRIST IN GLORY WITH ALL THE SAINTS

An Art and Development Program celebrating the 50th Anniversary of St. John Vianney Parish

Thank you those who have completed the pledge card and returned it to the parish office. If you have not returned your card, please take a few moments to fill it out and return it. Thank you for your generosity in "Moving Forward By Giving Back".

Contributing to the Christ In Glory With All The Saints campaign is not just about the funds we raise, but the unity and love we demonstrate. It is a powerful affirmation of our commitment to the parish, to our faith, and to each other, setting a strong foundation for the next 50 years and beyond. By giving, you are helping to provide the resources necessary to continue offering vital spiritual guidance, community outreach programs, maintaining the sacred spaces where we gather in worship, and ensuring the financial stability for future generations and growth. Your gift, no matter the size, makes a tangible difference. As we move towards our 50th anniversary, it is an investment in our spiritual home and in the future of the faith we hold dear. Let's join hands, invest in our future, and continue the legacy of love and faith that has been faithfully passed down to us. *There are extra pledge cards and information on the table in the Narthex. ### ST. JOHN VIANNEY JUBILEE

St. John Vianney Parish will turn 50 years old in 2024. We have activities throughout the upcoming year to celebrate this milestone anniversary.

Thoughts from Fr. Paul Schwaab, compiled by Martha Bruckner

"After his agony in the garden, Jesus pulled himself up and returned to the disciples. He knew he was about to suffer in pain, a soul in sadness; all the disciples had to do was 'sit down, watch, and wait.' It was a simple job, but at this important hour, they failed Him. He came and found them sleeping. Notice it was the 'rock', Peter, that he roused first, 'Simon, are you sleeping?' Imagine the confused look in the startled face of the Rock. 'Could you not watch one hour with me?' At a time when we would be effusing with self-pity aware of what was ahead, Jesus Christ understood the weakness of his followers." (1963)

SJV JUBILEE 50th JUBILEE PRAYER

God, our Almighty Father, to you be given all honor and glory. May you continue to bless our parish under the patronage of St. John Vianney. We ask for his continued intercession as we celebrate this 50th year jubilee. Just as St. John Vianney taught God's love and forgiveness in Word and Sacrament may our parish honor his witness and presence as we continue to live as a faith family in Community to Proclaim your Word, to Worship you in Spirit, and to provide Service to others. We ask this all in the name of Jesus Christ, alive in glory with all the saints. Amen.

St. John Vianney, pray for us.

DEACON'S CORNER

Today's Host: Deacon Steve Floersch

This column features a weekly article from the Deacons of both parishes.

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT – IT'S NOT TOO LATE

Here I am in the fourth week of lent. I find myself falling into a familiar trap of looking back and judging how "successful" my lent has been, even though there are a couple weeks yet to go. My inclination is to measure my success in terms of how closely I followed my Lenten resolutions. I suppose that can be one measure, but I do not think it is the best standard to use in looking at my Lenten journey.

Lent is about conversion and conversion cannot be effectively measured in a 7-week period of time. Conversion is a lifetime process. The word "conversion" comes from the French word convertère, which means to "turn around". During lent we are challenged to turn around or to change our focus, so we see things differently. The traditional biblical definition of conversion is to turn away from a life of sin and toward a life of faith in Jesus Christ. While that is true, that is too abstract to be of much practical help for me. I need something concrete that has everyday application to my life.

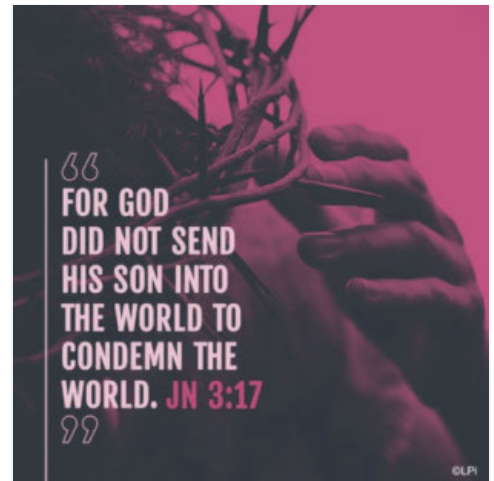

So regardless of where I am in terms of the resolutions that I made at the beginning of lent, I find it helpful to look at 3 areas of my daily life:

1. Prayer: Am I setting aside a regular time to relate to God every day. Relationships do not grow without spending time together.
2. Becoming less selfish: Do I continue to discern the difference between by "wants" and my "needs" with the goal of disciplining myself away from unnecessary attachments that have no real value for me but may be feeding my selfishness.
3. Becoming more "others centered": There are a lot of terms for this, but Jesus tells us that loving our neighbor is of utmost importance. Our "neighbor" is really everyone God puts into our path, and it starts at home with our family members.

If I continue to strive to incorporate 1. and 2. above into my daily life, I will inevitably get better at 3. And Jesus tells us that, we will be judged on love alone.

So, Lenten resolutions are good if they help me in one of these 3 areas. But the better question for me is: am I willing to continue focusing on incorporating 1, 2 and 3 into my daily life as I go forward past lent? Conversion is a lifetime journey, so it is never too late.

Next Week: Deacon Tom Frankenfield

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

- Father John Muir, ©LPi

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
MARCH 10TH, 2024
FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son..." - John 3:16

Of all the wonderful gifts that God has given to us, the gift of His own Son is truly the greatest. How can we ever thank God for a gift like that? God does not ask us to sacrifice our own precious firstborn, but He does ask that we are grateful and generous with our God-given gifts. He asks that we nurture and develop our gifts, and in gratitude, generously give back with increase our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the mission and ministry of our parish and greater Church.

YOUR LEGACY: Your Estate Plan

Have you remembered the Church in your will? A bequest from your will of a portion of your estate can help ensure that the good works of our parish can continue.
