3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

We give thanks for Your Son, Jesus the Christ, who continues to offer us new life, who continues to turn us around and upside down, who continues to break down the walls of death in our own life. Forgive us, restore us and renew us. In the name of our risen Savior, Jesus the Christ, we pray. Amen. 3rd Sunday of Easter

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Whenever this line is used in the scriptures “The God of Abraham, the God of Issac, and the God of Jacob,” it refers to a God who is personal. In the Easter narratives, we hear how Jesus personally encounters his disciples and unfolds the scriptures to their lives. The Gospel reading takes place after Jesus encountering two disciples on the road to Emmaus and they were relating their encounter to the other disciples and how they recognized Jesus in the breaking of bread. Once again in His encounter with his disciples in His resurrected state, Jesus begins with the greeting “Peace be with you.” By how Jesus greeted His disciples, Jesus wants us to know once again how He personally wants to encounter our lives – not through force or fear but by His loving encounter that invites us to come to Him. The offering of the Cross is the ultimate act of God’s love. By how God fought evil with love, it tells us that there is nothing that would prevent us from God’s love.

Next weekend, we celebrate First Communion with the Second Graders at St John Vianney. We celebrated with our First Communicants at Mary Our Queen last Sunday. Congratulations are in order. We would like to thank all our teachers and catechists for guiding them to this day. Please keep them in your prayers.

Work will begin on the playground at Mary Our Queen this coming week with the removal of the rubber mulch and preparation of the grounds for the poured surfacing rubber. The work should be completed in about a month. Installation of new slides will also occur during this process. In the meantime, please do not use the playground during this period. There will be caution tape around the area.

Because of your generosity to the Capital Campaign at St John Vianney and Mary Our Queen, we are able to pay down our debt at St John Vianney and to defray the cost of the roof replacement. We are also able to pay for the replacement of the mechanicals at Mary Our Queen. Through the Capital Campaign of Mary Our Queen, we were also able to start a new scholarship fund for Mary Our Queen School in honor of our Founding Pastor Msgr. Kenny. The scholarship fund will be used to assist active parishioners who need tuition assistance. Msgr Kenny and our founding members made a lot of sacrifices to ensure that our school was available for all who desire a Catholic Education and this scholarship continues in the spirit of our founding Pastor. More details of this scholarship will be made available in the near future. If you would like to contribute to this scholarship fund, kindly contact our Parish Office.

As many of you are aware, I have been having health issues over the past few weeks. Although I have tried various treatments, surgery is inevitable. Please keep me in your prayers.

Easter Blessings to all of you.

Fr Marc

ST. JOHN VIANNEY JUBILEE

St. John Vianney Parish will turn 50 years old in 2024. We have activities throughout the upcoming year to celebrate this milestone anniversary.

Thoughts from Fr. Paul Schwaab, compiled by Martha Bruckner
"Where, oh merciful God, are the actions of my everyday life that show that I have any knowledge or affection for You? How did I serve You yesterday? I fear more that my day was a disservice. I fear, Lord, that yesterday was an empty failure; granted, I didn't deliberately try to offend You, but whatever I achieve of worldly good and mundane success is empty if I do not offer the entirety of it to You and see Your will in all of the little things that make up all of my yesterdays. Enlighten me that I can make an eternal success out of today. 'All for You' will be my motto for today." (St. Mary's Church, Omaha, 1961)

SJV JUBILEE 50th JUBILEE PRAYER

God, our Almighty Father, to you be given all honor and glory. May you continue to bless our parish under the patronage of St. John Vianney. We ask for his continued intercession as we celebrate this 50th year jubilee. Just as St. John Vianney taught God's love and forgiveness in Word and Sacrament may our parish honor his witness and presence as we continue to live as a faith family in Community to Proclaim your Word, to Worship you in Spirit, and to provide Service to others. We ask this all in the name of Jesus Christ, alive in glory with all the saints. Amen.

St. John Vianney, pray for us.

HOME ENTHRONEMENT

Please consider enthroning the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary in your home! As per the World Apostolate of Fatima, "Enthronement of our homes to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary is an excellent means of sanctifying, protecting, enhancing and preserving marriage and family life...The consecration of our families to the Immaculate Heart of Mary acknowledges her as our spiritual Mother and implores her to extend her mantle of love, comfort, and protection over us and lead us to a deeper relationship with her Son. Enthroned homes become domestic churches in which Jesus and Mary are participants in the everyday lives of all members of our families." For more information or to schedule it, please contact Lois Coyne at 402-697-0533 or Lori Hamilton at 402-699-5027. Fr. Rob Scheibhofer assisted by two Legion of Mary members will enthrone your home.

DEACON'S CORNER

Today's Host: Deacon David Medeiros

This column features a weekly article from the Deacons of both parishes.

Jesus I trust in you!

The book "He Leadeth Me" by Walter J. Ciszek, S.J., with Dainel L. Flaherty, S.J. is a story of Father Walter's journey/mission to Russia. He was captured and convicted as being a Vatican spy and spent 23 years in Soviet prisons and labor camps. He writes about his journey and his faith while in Russia.

In Chapter 7, 'Four Years of Purgatory', he speaks about trying to understand what is God's will for him as he lives his daily life in these prisons and labor camps.

He writes,

"Perfection consisted simply in learning to discover God's will in every situation and then in bending every effort to do what must be done.

Now, with sudden and almost blinding clarity and simplicity, I realized I had been trying to do something with my own will and intellect that was at once too much and mostly all wrong. God's will was not hidden somewhere "out there" in the situations in I found myself; the situations themselves were his will for me. What he wanted was for me to accept these situations as from his hands, to let go of the reins and place myself entirely at his disposal. He was asking of me an act of total trust, allowing for no interference or restless striving on my part, no reservations, no exceptions, no areas where I could set conditions or seem to hesitate. He was asking a complete gift of self, nothing held back. It demanded absolute faith: faith in God's existence, in his providence, in his concern for the minutest detail, in his power to sustain me, and in his love protecting me. It meant losing the last hidden doubt, the ultimate fear that God would not be there to bear you up."

Lord, let your face shine on us! Alleluia!

GOSPEL REFLECTION 3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

- Father John Muir, ©LPI

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
APRIL 14TH, 2024
3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and frightened..."

- Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life.
