

FINDING GOD IN THE FABRIC OF OUR LIVES

An exercise in Gratitude

grat·i·tude
(noun)

An attitude of joyful abundance

THURSDAY, OCTOBER
21 @ 7:00 PM IN THE
KENNY CENTER.

Please join us as Susan Naatz, Director of Ignatian Formation and Ministry at Creighton University leads us in an exercise of giftedness and gratitude.

Please bring one symbol of your life to the evening that represents something that is important or sacred to you. We will place these symbols in our prayer space when we open our evening together. There are no "right or wrong" symbols! It can be absolutely anything from a religious item from your faith tradition or a special gift you have received from a loved one. Other ideas might include but are not limited to a picture, piece of cloth, book, jewelry...anything to express something precious, important, or sacred in your life.

All women of the Mary Our Queen Parish are welcome to attend this event. Please RSVP to <https://maryourqueen.flocknote.com/LadiesGuild/note/13796615> or by emailing moqladiesguild@gmail.com.

At the request of the presenter, masks will be required during her presentation.
