Mary Our Queen and St. John Vianney Faith Formation Guide

Since the beginning of time, men and women from every generation - from Adam and Eve in the garden, to Plato and Aristotle, to you and me today - have faced the big questions of life: How can I find happiness? What makes life worth living? What makes for a good life? Not everyone takes time to reflect deeply on these questions, but we answer them nonetheless, through our actions and choices. "What we desire or love ultimately is a (largely implicit) vision of what we hope for, what we think the good life looks like. This vision of the good life shapes all kinds of actions and decisions and habits that we undertake, often without our thinking about it." [1]

In Deuteronomy, Moses receives God's answer to these questions when He gives the 10 Commandments. The context of this is important – God, a loving father, had cared for the Israelites in dramatic ways as he rescued them from slavery in Egypt. He protected them, provided for them, and led them to the promised land. It is this loving, good father who revealed to them the best way to live – "so that it might go well with them and their children forever!" (Deut. 5:29). The Commandments are not a scorecard created by a critic, but the guidance of the one who knows us best because He created us. They are not arbitrary rules, but a roadmap for freedom and happiness given by a loving God who rescues His people. And while the rest of Scripture and Tradition unpack what that means, Jesus tells us later that the good life all boils down to two things: Love God. Love people.

From fall through spring, our family of parishes will be taking time to reflect on the first part of this Great Commandment: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." (Matt 22:37). In this Faith Formation guide and in weekly bulletins, you'll find reflections, resources and events that will help us to grow in understanding and living out the good news that leads to a good life.

What does it mean to LOVE GOD WITH ALL YOUR heart, soul, mind and strength?

Faith & Fellowship Nights

Be rooted and continually built up in Christ. Col. 2:7

Join us as we learn and reflect on what it means to love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Heart

OCT. 14

BEGINNING WITH THE BIBLE

NICK FREDRICKSON, DESIGNER OF THE WORD ON FIRE BIBLE AND JOHN MEYER, PARISHIONER

7 - 8:30 pm | MOQ

To love God with all our hearts, we must get to know Him. One way to do that is to spend time reading His words in the Bible. Scripture is God's love letter to us, but it can be intimidating to know where to start and how to make sense of it. Join us to hear from Nick Fredrickson, the designer behind the Word on Fire Bible, which was created by Bishop Robert Barron's ministry to make reading Scripture more accessible. We'll also hear some practical tips on how to select a Bible that suits your needs, and have a variety of options available for purchase.

Soul

NOV. 5

FINDING YOUR IDENTITY IN CHRIST

JOE HESCHMEYER, CATHOLIC ANSWERS
SPONSORED BY KVSS

7 - 8:00 pm | SJV

The soul is our spiritual core and identity. The question "Who am I?" is on the minds and hearts of people of all ages. And for good reason: The answer is important! Who we are - or who we think we are - drives our actions and shapes our relationships.

The world is busy feeding us the wrong answers: We are our political party, job title, race - and the list goes on. But until we know why we were created, by whom, and for what purpose, we can never be truly satisfied. Join us as Catholic Answers author and speaker Joe Heschmeyer tackles the question of identity in a way that leads us to the freedom to be who we were created to be.

Mind

FEB. 3

HOLY SIMPLICITY

KATIE SCIBA, INTERNATIONAL SPEAKER & AUTHOR

7 - 8:30 pm | MOQ

The mind is comprised of our intellect, our thoughts, and our focus. Healing sometimes requires us to look at the things that we've allowed into our lives and homes that distract us from who we are and what God is calling us to. The exterior reality often reflects our interior one. Embracing the divine call of Holy Simplicity will help you root out whatever is keeping you from freedom and peace, and help you make more space for God. Join us as we examine how to identify the purpose of our space and our life to begin this process to true clarity.

Strength

MARCH 3

TO DIE WELL

DR STEPHEN DORAN
DEACON, AUTHOR AND NEUROSURGEON

7 - 8:30 pm | MOQ

Our strength includes a combination of our physical energy, our habits and our resources. Although we tend to avoid the topic, death awaits us all, and to die well, we must first live well. Join us to hear from Dr. Stephen Doran, a local deacon and author of To Die Well: A Catholic Neurosurgeon's Guide to the End of Life, who will share thoughts that will help us reflect on how we are using our energy, actions and resources.

Encounter God

"Come and See"

As Catholics, we believe in an ongoing, never-ending conversion, which applies equally to cradle Catholics and converts of any kind, at any age. Catholics encounter God through the Sacraments - at Baptism, in the Eucharist at Mass, during Confession, and in Confirmation. We also encounter God through His Word (the Bible), through prayer, and at Eucharistic Adoration, where He is truly present. In addition, the experiences listed here allow us to set aside time to examine the claims of Christianity, open our hearts to God, and make or renew a commitment to follow Him, which can bring new life to our experience of the sacraments and draw us into a deeper relationship with the Lord. In the words of Pope Benedict XVI, "Faith is above all a personal, intimate encounter with Jesus, and to experience his closeness, his friendship, his love; only in this way does one learn to know him ever more, and to love and follow him ever more. May this happen to each one of us."

Grow in Faith - Ongoing Groups

Follow Me and Remain in Me

"Jesus' invitation, "Come follow me", calls us to engage in lifelong education in the Catholic faith. ... A living faith is a searching faith—it "seeks understanding." Adults need to question, probe, and critically reflect on the meaning of God's revelation in their unique lives in order to grow closer to God. A searching faith leads to deepening conversion. Along the way, it may even experience doubt. Yet the essence of this quality of adult faith is not doubt, but search—a trusting, hopeful, persistent "seeking" or "hunger" for a deeper appropriation of the Gospel and its power to guide, transform, and fulfill our lives." (USCCB, 1999, Our Hearts Were Burning Within Us)

Parish Prayer

Prayer to Love God with All My Heart, Soul, Mind and Strength

God, my Father,
may I love You in all things and above all things.
Teach me what it means to love You
with all my heart, mind, soul and strength,
and to love my neighbor as myself.
Place in my heart a desire to please You
and fill my mind with thoughts of your love,
so that I may grow in your wisdom
and enjoy your peace.
Amen.
